The Hunt Is On - April 1

Who doesn't love an Easter egg hunt? On Easter Sunday, following worship, we invite all children to hunt for eggs. Bring your baskets to Kohlstedt Hall after the Easter celebration where Pastor Susan will dismiss children by age for the egg hunt.

Please note that there will not be Sunday School at 9:00 a.m. on Easter Sunday.

If you would like to help with preparations for the egg hunt or refreshments for fellowship time on Easter, please e-mail Pastor Susan at susan@wgumc.org.

Got Any Good Jokes?

The Easter season kicks off on April Fool's Day, and we are going to pick up on a medieval tradition that designated the day after Easter as a "Day of Joy and Laughter" to celebrate God getting the last laugh on the devil when Jesus rose from the dead.

There is plenty of evil in this world, but we can take it on with a smile, knowing that Christ has already won a victory over it. Send in your best jokes, and we may use them on Holy Humor Sunday, April 8.

We Celebrate Native American Ministries Sunday on April 15

One tribe in North America has told this story for centuries: when people "pale as birch" crossed the great water in large canoes, they brought with them "The Black Book." However, the bringers of the physical Book could not have known what it would mean and look like to be Native and a follower of Jesus. Today Native Americans – with many unique languages, many unique cultures – honor their heritage, and live as Jesus-followers, led by a rotation of primarily Native American pastors.

Supporting the Ministry of Christ Among Native People

Most Americans today recognize that the history following the arrival of the large canoes bore little resemblance to the one all Christians identify as Creator. That's why the people of The United Methodist Church, Native and non-Native, are creating a new history. Through Native American Ministries Sunday, we're able to equip and empower Native American pastors, congregations and seminary students to do what only they can do: authentically worship and serve Jesus.

As a member of The United Methodist Church, your gift, on this day, equips Native congregations – like New York's Onondaga Nation UMC and Nebraska's Native American Sacred Winds congregation – to worship and serve as only they can. This work, and hundreds of other ministries, are possible because you give. You equip seminary students who will honor and celebrate Native American culture in their ministries. And you empower congregations that are finding fresh new ways to minister to their communities with the love of Christ.

Manna & Hope - A Food Ministry of WGUMC

 "Manna & Hope" is a food ministry of Willow Glen United Methodist Church, started by Linda Yépez and Gina Libbee. Each week, Gina and Linda purchase, prepare and distribute piping hot homemade breakfast burritos and fresh coffee to homeless encampments along the Guadalupe River near San Fernando and Delmas streets, under the 87 overpass. Though we pride ourselves on bringing good, healthy, hot homemade food to those in need (the "Manna" part of our ministry), our primary goal is to give our brothers and sisters in the streets a sense of hope. Through consistency and follow-through, prayers and hugs, and a humble breakfast of burritos and coffee, our goal is to impart the feeling that what is wanted can be had, and no one should have to try and get there alone. That is the "Hope" part of our ministry. To support this ministry, we gladly and gratefully accept cash donations (checks should be made payable to WGUMC). Your $20 donation will feed 40 people. Please make sure that all contributions are clearly designated with either "Manna & Hope" or "Food Ministry" in the memo! You can also help out with donations of eggs, grated cheese, gas cards, socks and coffee (grounds, stirrers and cups). Please drop these by anytime during office hours -- perishables go into the bottom left-hand side of the big refrigerator. Socks, gift cards, etc. can be left in the workroom.

Should you have any questions regarding what we do, please feel free to contact Linda at (408) 256-2121 or linday@wgumc.org. Thank you for your support!

Pastoral Letter

As I write this, my daughter and husband are in Spokane touring Gonzaga University. The month of April will be full of anxiety as deadlines approach for making a decision about which college Kristen will go to in the Fall. She worked hard and has been accepted into every school so far. But that means that she has too many good choices and too many different directions she could take. That's a little scary, because she is beginning to realize that the next four years will one way or another shape the rest of her life. So, what does she do? She does a lot of research. She talks to her friends. She tours the campuses and tries to imagine herself at each one, hoping that somehow or other, the right path will choose her.

Watching Kristen go through this transition in her life makes me think that our congregation is in the midst of transition, too. It's been five years since we last revisited our mission statement and made the commitment to pay down the Woodhaven debt and complete the Kohlstedt Hall renovations. Now that we have "graduated" from Mission Possible, we need to get ready to begin a new chapter in the life of WGUMC. So, it's time to do some research, listen to God, talk to our friends, "tour" some new ways of being church and trust that the right path will choose us.

In the next month or so, we are going to round up some of our best hearts and brains to work on reimagining ministry in an ever-changing and always challenging environment. At a recent workshop, I learned about a process called "design thinking" that helps businesses and nonprofits define needs and design creative ways to fulfill them. I'm eager to try it out here and fortunately, some of you know a lot more about this than I do! With your help, I know we can improve on how we make disciples of Jesus Christ in Willow Glen.

As we begin to narrow our options, we can try out a Quaker method of discernment that I learned from Parker Palmer that can help congregations listen for the Spirit's leading as they make vital ministry decisions.

Who are we? Why are we here? What is God calling us to be? To do? How does God want us to go about doing it? How are we going to fund it? These are not new questions, but these are new times and we are going to need new answers, which means we are going to need you. Has it ever been more important to have a strong and vital faith community to make disciples who will remake the world? This is the something bigger that we are all longing to be a part of. I can only ask you to do your part. Thank you.

Grace and peace,

Pastor Rebecca

Sunday School

We're letting the peace of Christ rule in our hearts in Sunday School

We spent the month of March exploring what it means to be patient, so it seems natural that we would consider the value of peace in April. No one wants to be angry all the time. So what is the opposite of out-of-control, short-fused, self-centered, my-way-only anger? Following up on the Golden Rule, the answer is to care more about other people and their feelings than about any argument or disagreement.

Peace is a large part of God's creation and we can reflect God's peace in our relationships with others. This usually requires some type of sacrifice, but that cost is worth it. Peace is more than just saying the right things and smoothing over a conflicted situation for a few minutes. Peace is about doing everything we can to build bridges between people, fixing what is broken in our relationships and building one another up with love and care. We'll explore biblical examples of peace-making and learn some tools for how to make peace ourselves. Together, we're learning how to fix the problems that arise between people and to make peace a priority in our lives.

Sunday School meets each week at 9:00 a.m. in the preschool building.

See you there!

CROSSWALK

FAITH AND FELLOWSHIP FOR THIRD, FOURTH AND FIFTH GRADERS

Friday, April 20

7:00-8:30 p.m.

Wesley Room and Kohlstedt Hall

Theme: Being a Positive Influence

Scripture: 1 Corinthians 16:13-14 and Proverbs 12:26

As Christians, we are called to live with integrity, honesty and kindness. Being courageous may mean standing up for someone who is being picked on at school. It also means staying true to who you are and who God calls you to be. Let's consider how we can be good examples for one another as we continue to grow more fully into the people God created each of us to be.

CrossWalk is for all third, fourth and fifth graders. Bring a friend!

No prior training or experience is needed and you get to meet a lot of great people too! If you are willing to help us, please contact the church office or Jim Pierson at pierson-j@sbcglobal.net or 408-267-7933. Thank you!
